BANG FOR THE BITE

The discounts and insider info are brill, but since they aren't available everywhere, gotta knock a few apples.

COCKTAIL FACTOID

Nina and Tim Zagat started their famous guidebook in '79, surveying drunk friends at their monthly wine-tasting group's dinner.

The Bite

Pick up an insider's guide to green in your city. Like a green Zagat's, these "little green books" offer exclusive deals and purse or glovebox convenience so you'll always know where to go.

The Benefits

- Like having a green tour guide for your town.
- Support local green businesses.
- Exclusive deals. Instead of Burger King coupons, get thousands of bucks in free yoga lessons, 2-fer-1 meals at organic restaurants, and eco-furniture rebates.

Personally Speaking

The Bozeman team's a little jealous - SF's Green Zebra coupon book pretty much rocks - free spa treatments, carshare credit, and a whole lot more.
